

MOSAIC
FAMILY SERVICES

FOR EXTERNAL RELEASE

March 20th, 2025

Mosaic Family Services Appoints Mirjana Omeragic as Acting Executive Director

Mosaic Family Services announces the retirement of Executive Director Tori Hobbs and the appointment of Mirjana Omeragic as the organization's Acting Executive Director.

Mosaic Family Services is pleased to announce that Mirjana Omeragic has been appointed as the nonprofit's Acting Executive Director, succeeding Tori Hobbs, who is retiring after two and a half years of dedicated leadership. Mirjana will officially assume responsibilities on April 12th, 2025.

Mirjana Omeragic has been a dedicated advocate for Mosaic clients, including those in the immigrant and refugee communities for over 25 years. As a member of Mosaic's Senior Leadership Team, she brings a wealth of experience in nonprofit leadership, program development, and advocacy. As a former refugee herself, she has a deep personal understanding of the challenges faced by those Mosaic serves and has dedicated her career to advancing resources and services for vulnerable communities.

"Mosaic Family Services has been a vital source of support for survivors of human trafficking, domestic violence, and refugees throughout North Texas for over 30 years," said Mirjana Omeragic. "I am honored to continue my journey with Mosaic in this new role, working alongside our dedicated staff, board, and community partners. I truly believe that Mosaic is the right place to fulfill my personal and organizational mission to transform, rebuild, and empower the lives of the people we serve."

During her tenure as Executive Director, Tori Hobbs strengthened Mosaic's impact and led the organization through significant challenges and changes. She spearheaded the creation of a new, thoughtfully designed office space, ensuring a welcoming, trauma-informed environment where survivors feel safe, respected, and empowered. Mosaic's board of directors is deeply grateful for her leadership and contributions.

"The Board deeply appreciates Tori's compassionate and impactful leadership throughout the past several years," said Lacey Duffy, Chair of Mosaic's Board. "We have also long admired Mirjana's passion, expertise, and exceptional leadership in both program and organizational management. We are confident that, as Acting Executive Director, she will continue to guide Mosaic with dedication, ensuring the organization remains steadfast in its mission to transform lives and provide vital services to those in need."

About Mosaic Family Services

Mosaic Family Services mission is to transform, empower, and rebuild our clients' lives through culturally competent services. We envision a world that values the human rights of all. <https://mosaicervices.org/>

For more information, contact:

Momtaz Begum MSc, Senior Director of Development & Marketing
214-821-5393 x271 momtazb@mosaicervices.org

12225 Greenville Ave., Suite 800, Dallas, TX 75243
(214) 821.5393 | (214) 821.0810 FAX | www.mosaicervices.org